Harold J. Farber, MD, MSPH

Dr. Farber is an Associate Professor of Pediatrics, Pulmonary Section at Baylor College of Medicine and Texas Children's Hospital in Houston, Texas. A graduate of the State University of New York at Stony Brook medical school, he completed his fellowships in pediatric pulmonology at the University of Arizona in Tucson, AZ and Tulane University in New Orleans, LA. In addition, Dr. Farber obtained a MSPH in Biostatistics from Tulane University.

Dr. Farber, board certified in both pediatrics and pediatric pulmonology, is a member of the committee which developed the Tobacco Dependence Treatment Toolkit through the American College of Chest Physicians. He has also presented at multiple national/international conferences, authored many articles for peer-reviewed journals and serves on numerous editorial boards. In addition, he has served as a national consultant for the development of patient education materials and has written the book, Your Child and Asthma.

Dr. Farber will present Achieving Asthma Success focusing on two topics:

- ◆ Update on asthma management and practical strategies to make it work in your office.
- ◆ If you can treat asthma, you can treat tobacco dependence: Important strategies from the American College of Chest Physicians Tobacco Dependence Toolkit, 3rd Edition.
